BEST OF BRITISH

Launched over 25 years ago by Terence Conran and Sean Sutcliffe, English furniture company Benchmark continues to expand its range of sustainably made pieces, with new designs by Russell Pinch, Jens Risom and Steuart Padwick. Simen Aarseth, the latest designer to join the team, has produced the Puck side table (right). Simple, and elegant, it is available in two sizes, from £195, in oak or walnut with either a timber or lacquered top. Other designs include Russell Pinch's Mrs B dining table, a modern take on a classic kitchen table, joined by the Mrs B console, £1,650, and Mrs B bench, from £780. There are also new designs by Terence Conran, including the Alvis sofa range, from £2,240.
